AP Stars—
they make CSU Shine!

Jill Salahub
Department of English

- Editor/Programmer for Writing@CSU, one of the largest online writing websites in the world
- Helps faculty members move toward paperless classrooms
- Provides professional development for faculty and peers

Renee Welch
The Career Center

- Her dedication and persistence stand out and impact student services
- Connects students from freshmen to senior year with Career Center services
- Relationship builder across campus
- Made suggestions on office efficiency, time utilization and improving work/life balance

For more AP Council information: contact Courtney Butler, Chair, Courtney.Butler@colostate.edu

http://ap.colostate.edu
Join AP Council-
We need good representation!

AP Stars—above and beyond!

AP Council recognized 8 administrative professionals that have gone “above and beyond” in 2009-2010. The criteria included collaboration with other units and the campus community, utilizing resources in a more effective manner and contributing to other admin professionals at CSU.

Deidra Church
CSU Athletics

- Deidra is the ideal “team player”
- Willing to give of herself to ensure the success of CSU Athletics
- Under her direction, Junior Ram Club has had a 210% increase in membership in 2009-2010

Rick Curtis
Colorado State
Forest Service

- Covered the workload of two additional positions while they were vacant
- Led the effort to revamp the Forest Service budget planning process
- He is the E-thority expert for the agency

Sheila Ferguson
Little Shop of Physics

- She possesses an incandescent smile
- Garage Sale Goddess who can stretch LSOP budget
- Gets her husband to work for us for FREE!
- Organizes and coordinates LSOP open house every year

http://ap.colostate.edu
Travis Ganter
Center for Environmental Management of Military Lands

- Travis has always done more with less
- Taken on a big project to create a GIS map which has photographic representation of the timber stands in Fort Drum
- Mentor to new RAs
- He NEVER produces a sub-standard product.

Melissa Landon
Colorado Natural Heritage Program

- Inspiration to others at CNHP and to AP community on campus
- Excellent manager who has worked hard to pull together a cohesive team
- Collaborator with on- and off-campus groups
- Manages Colorado’s only comprehensive database of natural heritage resources—attention to detail is evident!

Julie Orwick
Warner College of Natural Resources

- Stabilizing factor in the college (4 different deans/interim deans in 4 years).
- Promotes a high level of accountability
- Makes your priority her priority
- Collaborative work style minimizes stress.

Next AP Council meeting

April 13, 2010
8:30 a.m.
224/226 Lory Student Center

http://ap.colostate.edu